

CHARTER OAK PHOTOGRAPHIC SOCIETY, INC.
PRESENTS A PHOTOGRAPHIC SEMINAR:
“ IMAGE DESIGN IN NATURE AND BEYOND” (The Digital Transition)
BY: TONY SWEET
Saturday, November 3, 2007 (9:00 am to 4:30 pm)
East Hartford Community Cultural Center

After 20 years as a professional jazz artist, Tony changed careers and directed his creative juices towards nature photography. The improvisational, spontaneous, and abstract nature of jazz are also integral elements of nature photography. Today, Tony’s work is published worldwide. His images are represented by the Getty Picture Agency. His photographic prints are exhibited at the Nikon Corporate office in NYC, Mercy Medical Center, John Hopkins Breast Center, and in the Smithsonian in Washington, D.C. Tony conducts “Visual Artistry” photography workshops throughout the continental United States and Canada. Tony’s articles and photography are featured in Shutterbug and Rangefinder magazines, and as contributor to Nikonnet.com. He is a staff writer for Nikon World magazine. He has authored three books in the art of photography. Fine Art Nature Photography, Fine Art Flower Photography, and Fine Art Photography: Water, Ice, and Fog.

The seminar will be divided into the following sessions:

- Introduction and Overview
- Visual Rhythm—Compositional Techniques I
- Nik Filter Show Illustrating Creative Use of Niks Color Efex Pro Filters
- Lensbaby Presentation
- Depth of Field, etc. Advanced Compositional Techniques II
- The Art of Interpretation
- Special Effects: Digital Sandwiching, Multiple Exposures and Recent Work and Q&A

*This seminar is sponsored in part by Nik Software, Inc. and Hunt’s Photo & Video. Hunt’s will be on site to sell their photographic products and equipment. (If you have any special requests for Hunt’s, please contact Gary Farber at 1-800-221-1830 ext 2332 or by email at filmguygary@aol.com).
